Materials

1. Selected text or poem

Procedure

1. Explain to students that as you read the poem or story you will stretch out some of the words. Encourage students to listen carefully as you stretch out the words. It is their job to say the word you stretched out.

2. Give a signal when it is his/her turn to say the word.

3. After completing the activity, reread the entire book without stopping to segment words.