Here Are My Hands
Back to Rhyme

Materials

1. Here Are My Hands, by Bill Martin, John Archambault, and Ted Rand
2. Body parts rhyme cards

Procedure

1. Read the book aloud to the child.
2. Place the body parts rhyme cards on the table. (knees, ears, feet, nose, head).
3. Place the remaining cards in a stack. Ask the child to take the top card and try rhyming the name or the picture with each of the body parts picture names.
4. When the child has found the rhyme place both cards to the side.
5. Continue with the remaining cards. (If the child has difficulty, place the correct rhyme and another card out from the others and have him/her say the words together).
